Nolan Faidley, spring semester editor-in-chief, and Bill Bidwell, Lantern advisor, chuckle over a humorous headline.

The Lantern "Grows Up"

The student newspaper, The Lantern, added size and features during the year. Published weekly for the first time, the paper added advertising, sections on fine arts and the "Co-ed," increased sports coverage and photography. For the third time the paper received the All American Critical Service Award from the Associated Collegiate Press. The largest staff in the school's history helped to publish the paper.

Grizzly Staff

The 1973 GRIZZLY Staff led by Paula Reed, editor, and Miss Blenda Kuhlmann, adviser, spent many hard working hours drawing layouts, writing copy, indexing names, and doing the many jobs necessary for the publication of a yearbook. Other staff members making up the yearbook production class were: Mark E. Gale, photographer; Cathy Marley, Jay Whiting, Rita Fehrenbach, and Tresia Morris. All staff members were responsible for specific pages and helped with all phases of yearbook production.

Drama

"The Mousetrap" was presented by the Junior College Theater under the direction of Mr. Patten in July during summer school and repeated in August as the first production of the fall semester.

The second play presented was "Little Moon of Alban." One-act plays, a children's play, and a community play were scheduled for second semester.

Music

The purpose of the music department is to provide entertainment, to allow participation and learning, and to have performance groups. Visiting musicians and guest conductors added a variety of learning and entertainment for students.

Christmas Is Music

The annual Christmas program of the music department was held in the student union on Sunday afternoon, December 12. Various group, and solo performances by Ann Patterson, Doug Krause, Sheri Barr, and Pam Travis were featured. The Collegiate Singers, a women's trio, and a faculty quartette also provided entertainment. Other small groups added novelty and humor to the event. Student Council

The Student Council cooperates with the administration and expresses the student body's policies and activity program.

Officers elected in the spring of 1972 were Steve Cox, president; Sean Cook, vice-president; Susie Murray, secretary; Rod Schuler, treasurer; Carol Day, student affairs; and Beth Martens, student promotions.

The Student Council sponsored the Red Cross Blood Drive, football homecoming and dance, Christmas dance, fall and spring elections, and the spring banquet and prom.

Campus Crusade For Christ

Campus Crusade for Christ (CCC) is an interdenominational student Christian movement. Members share with others what Jesus Christ has done in their lives.

Many members attended CCC conferences which taught them how to study the Bible, apply it to their lives, and share their faith with others.

Some other activities included Bible studies, hearing a rock band, Christmas carolling, and having recreational times.

DECA

The Distributive Education Club enrolled a total of 32 members the past year, largest number since its inception. Weekly club programs included numerous distinguished speakers from the business and industrial scene. Community involvement included seasonal charitable contributions, participation in the El Dorado PRIDE project, and an exhaustive survey of over 1,000 individuals and/or businesses in Butler County. The purpose of the survey was to discover weaknesses and strengths within the local community. Additional events included competition in state and national DECA contests.

Nursing Students Prepare for Service

This past year's nursing class has been one of the largest classes enrolled in the program at Butler County Community Junior College. Members represent five towns and three counties.

Besides the clinical experience received at cooperating hospitals in El Dorado, Newton, and Wichita, these students had additional individual clinical assignments. They spent time observing a clinical nurse, a public health nurse, a school and college nurse, and an industrial nurse, besides observing in other community health agencies.

On April 16 the nursing department of the college sponsored a Disaster Workshop for local students and any interested nurses in the area. This experience demonstrated what it is like to work under disaster conditions such as tornadoes, floods, earthquakes, and other similar conditions.

Politics On Campus

During this election year, politics on campus brought some of the student body into full action.

On November 7, 1972, both parties won their elections in one of two different ways: the Republicans in a record landslide elected President Nixon to his second term, and the Democrats gave Governor Docking his unprecedented fourth term.

Butler's Harriers Prove Consistent Leaders

In five consecutive seasons Butler County's cross country teams coached by Ollie Isom, have placed fifth, sixth, first, third, and fifth in the National Junior College Cross Country Meets. Since the sport was added to the college athletic program in 1967, the teams have participated in many junior college and four-year college competitive meets. In all, they have compiled an enviable record of 40 first, 3 second, 3 third, 3 fourth, 3 fifth, and 2 sixth place awards. At the same time they have had nine cross country runners qualify to be named All-Americans.

Football

The Grizzly Gridmen had a good 1972 football season. Despite a poor win-loss record the team drew large crowds and gave the fans and followers many exciting moments. The team also brought spirit back to the fans, something that had been missed before. Over all, the team was 2-8-1. There were 23 freshmen and 17 sophomores on the team.

Slade: All Conference

Troy Slade, a freshman from Burlington, North Carolina, made the coaches' all conference team as an offensive flankerback.

Receiving honorable mentions were offensive linemen Glenn Jacobs, Greg Norflee and George Voegeli; defensive interior linemen, Stuart Oeser; linebacker, Mike Reynolds and defensive back Leroy Smith. Ed Bradney also received honorable mention as punter.

Board of Trustees

The policy makers of our school are the Board of Trustees. They have been busy this year with numerous innovations. A senior citizen opportunity college bill was passed which will enable Butler county men (65 or over) and women (62 or over) to attend classes at the college without paying tuition. The LANTERN was given permission to publish weekly and to use advertising. Mr. Felix Adams was granted a leave of absence to go to India for an eight weeks period. A summer theatre has been authorized for students in Leadville, Colorado. It is easy to see that the board is kept busy providing new opportunities. Mr. Hittle was elected to the state board of education in the 1972 election.

President and Mrs. Walbourn with board members are preparing to receive staff members during a reception of the 1972-73 school year.

Edwin J. Walbourn

Mr. Edwin J. Walbourn is always busy keeping his eye on everything concerned with the school. Being president of Butler County Community Junior College, he makes sure that the school is operating with the highest standards.

Administrative Staff

With fewer students on campus the administrators have had to make some changes this year. The budget is the main concern. Tuition fees rose from $4.00 to $5.00 by state regulation. Classes have been condensed and teachers moved around. After all changes were made, no courses were dropped from the curriculum.

Some changes were also made within the staff. Mr. Leimer assumed the role as Coordinator of Custodial and Maintenance. Dean Cummins, Dean of Student Services, has the registrar, counseling, admissions, athletics, financial aids, student activities, student housing, and public relations under his hand. Dean Wilson, Dean of Instructional Services, keeps his eye on the teachers, the supplies, and the overall necessities to keep college running with the proper material. Mr. McKinney, Registrar, Mrs. Mettler, Director of Nursing, and Mr. Harris, Business Manager, have their individual duties under President Walbourn.

Freshmen become acquainted with campus and classmates.

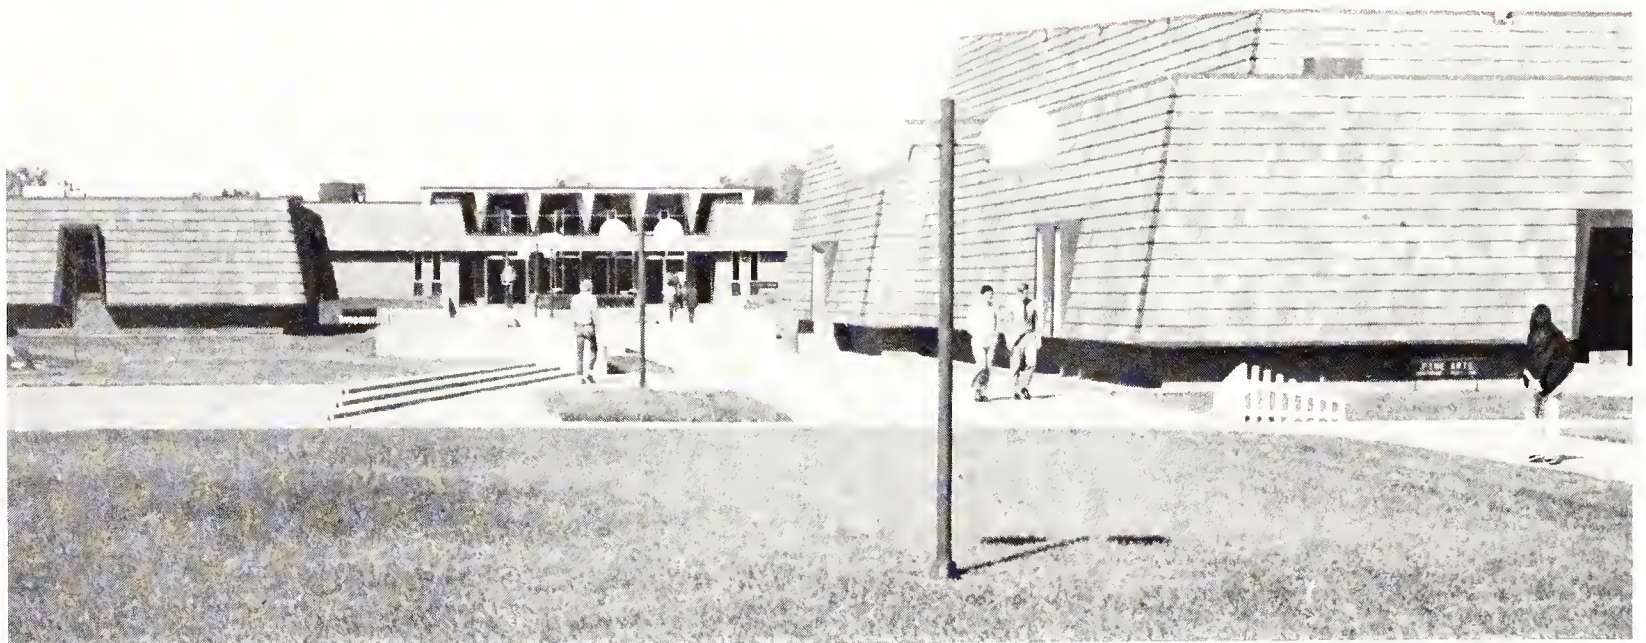

Maintenance Staff

Maintaining the grounds and buildings is a duty well done by our maintenance staff. Grass and flowers are taken care of year round. Classrooms and hallways are always clean when students start their day. The dormitory and its lounges are also cleaned daily by Mrs. Hall.

Cafeteria Staff

Keeping the students at Juco fed is the main task of the cafeteria staff. They prepare three full course meals a day to enable students in a hurry to get a good meal between classes. Twenty meals a week are served to dorm residents. The snack bar provides sandwiches and desserts for the light eaters.

Mrs. Hess presides over her artistically decorated table for the administrative, faculty, and staff buffet.

Sophomores Al-Bu

Sophomores totaling 226 — 140 men and 86 women — made up a small but important part of the campus community. The class officers — Bill Good, president; Denise Hiebert, vice president; and Shayne Heidlebaugh, secretary-treasurer — provided connections between the administrative staff, the student council, and the sophomores.

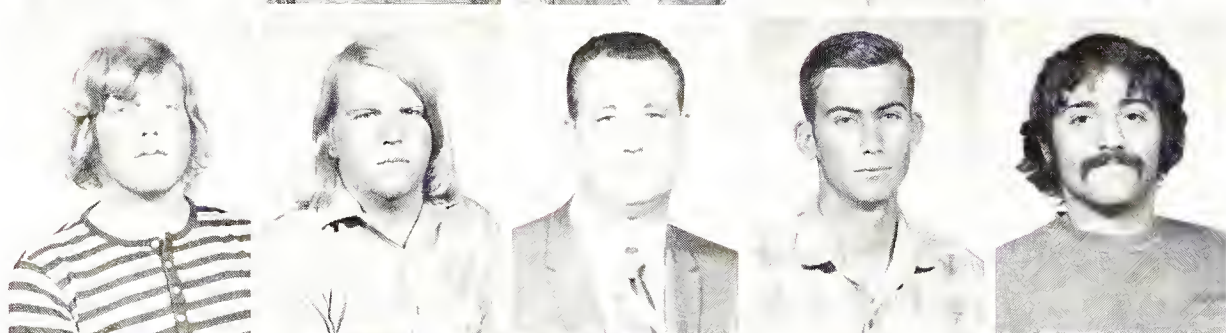

Bill Good, Shayne Heidlebaugh, Denise Hiebert.

Acknowledgements

A yearbook is a once-a-year publication which requires much thought, preparation and many hours of hard work. The 1973 GRIZZLY began simply as an idea on paper but now contains memories for each person associated with Butler County Community Junior College. It is our sincere wish that each student, faculty member, and staff member can distinctly identify himself with this edition of the grizzly.

During my year as editor, new ideas have been sought for and tried in the hope that our book will be different from any other. Deadlines have been met with a few frustrations, but many rewarding hours have been spent with other staff members preparing your book of memories.

Although I can't begin to mention everyone who has helped in the preparation of this book, my sincere thanks and appreciation go to Mr. Frank Wright, yearbook representative, for helping with the cover selection and other numerous details; Miss Blenda Kuhlmann, our adviser, for her patience and never failing assistance; the GRIZZLY staff — Mark Gale, photographer; Rita Fehrenbach, Jay Whiting, Tresia Morris, Cathy Marley, and Randi Zlab, who served as our typist. My thanks also go to Rick Carpenter, Mr. Darryl Patten, and members of the photography classes for supplying us with pictures and to Fulmer-Pippig Studio for their cooperation in developing and printing our pictures. A special thanks goes to Mr. Bill Bidwell for his advice and assistance when we needed him and to the campus organizations and their sponsors for their cooperation in scheduling pictures. But most important are you — the individuals who have suffered with us and endured having your pictures taken and at times retaken so that we could prepare this book for you.

Many students and faculty members are honored throughout the year in many different areas of concentration. Most of these are extra-curricular activities not normally required of the student.

Debators Rodger Biles and John McChristian walked away from the National Junior College Debate Tournament at Gattinburg, Tennessee with third-place honors. Biles also received an award commemorating his services as president of the national debate organization for the past year and McChristian was elected vice president for the coming year. Mike Hadley, advisor, was appointed as national editor of all serial publications of the association.

These members of the DECA were winners at the National DECA competition held at Atlantic City, New Jersey May 4 thru 11: Craig Stephens, finalist, Sales Representative; Mark Eaton, second, Marketing Research; Starlet Bannon and Gary Fritzler, third, advertising campaign; Herman Ogg, sponsor and director/coordinator Marketing Technology program.

Rita Carter, Darlene Tilson, Ramona McIntosh, and Joan Redington took state and national honors in the office education competition. All placed first in state competition at Topeka and later entered nationals at Amarillo, Texas during the second week of May.

graduates receive recognition

Twenty-seven graduates were named to the annual list of those included in Who's Who In American Junior College. Students may be nominated by any faculty member for a combination of qualities: Scholarship, citizenship, participation and leadership in academic and extra-curricular activities, and general promise of future usefulness to business and society. A faculty screening committee then makes the final selection.

Outstanding history students, who are nominated by faculty members of the social science department, receive the annual Cron History Award presented by the Butler County Historical Society.

Kristin Goebel and Jayne Fieandt tied for honors in history, receiving the annual Cron History Award.

order of the purple

Fifty-five graduates, the largest number in the history of the college, maintained a grade point average of 3.25 or above, making them eligible to be named to the Order of the Purple, college honor society. Grades were figured this year for the first time on four semesters of credit. In the history of the society 461 students have been granted membership honors.

commencement

On May 18th, 240 sophomores were graduated from Butler County Community Junior College with associate of arts or applied science degrees. Mr. Frank Hedrick, president of Beech Aircraft Corporation, addressed the class after which President Walbourn presented the class to Mr. E. F. Adams, chairman of the board of trustees, for presentation of the diplomas. The traditional promenade of faculty and students across campus began the days activities. Also featured were the Collegiate Singers.
